

COLLABORTIVE TRAINING EVENT

The Culture of Poverty

Saturday, August 15, 2009

8:30 – 9:00	Registration
9:00-12:00	Workshop
12:00-1:00	Lunch on your own
1:00-3:00	Workshop

Speaker: Al Rolph MSW CSW Training Supervisor for the Fond Du Lac Department of Social Services

This workshop will cover:

How Economic class affects behaviors and mindsets. The “Hidden Rules” with economic classes. How family structure and language development differ for many individuals who live in generational poverty. And personal skills for working with individuals from generational poverty.

LOCATION: UWM School of Continuing Education
161 W. Wisconsin Avenue, Suite 700 (attached to Grand Avenue Mall, 7th floor)

SPONSORS: Anu Family Services, My Home Your Home, THRIVE Treatment Services, St. Charles, St. Aemilian-Lakeside, Teipner Treatment Homes, LaCausa, Children's Service Society, The Youth Work Learning Center, Family Works, Fresh Start, New Horizon, Brighter Destinies

- Please be on time, no one will be allowed into the training after it has started unless other arrangements have been made.
- No children will be allowed in the training due to confidentiality and sensitive issues that may be discussed. No childcare will be available.
- There will be a $3 charge (with validation) for parking in the attached parking ramp; street parking may also be available.

Please RSVP to Denise Hoffman at 608-663-1262 or dhoffman@anufs.org by: August 7th, 2009